Boosting for the New Park In Englewood

A meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Roller, 511 60th St., last Friday evening and the Community Club as well as the Parent-Teacher Assn. was represented. Everyone expressed themselves as with the Times in its efforts to secure the park, and the territory suggested will extend from 59th St. to Englewood Ave. and from Wallace St. to the alley east of Halsted St. This is property that can be bought at reasonable price and now is the time to secure it. A mammoth petition is in preparation and the South Park Board will be bombarded by air water and land until they grant us the park. Be one of the boosters and join in.

The Busibuzz meets tomorrow with Mrs. Carl Lindee of 7209 Evans Ave.

The ruins of the old frame building on the north side of 63rd St. just east of Wallace, bears the sign "Junk Shop." It surely looks it but we can't understand why it is allowed to stand. The top has fallen back several feet from the line and looks as if it might topple down any minute.

J. C. Hackland of 6449 Harvard Ave. sports a beautiful gold watch the gift last Saturday of his friends in the sheriff's office and the Deneen organization. "Hack" is the lad that broke up the festivities at "Mike de Pike's" Burr Oak den last week and has been making a record as deputy sheriff. He will be better watched hereafter.

Mr. Hugo Wangeman of 6132 Ellis Ave. passed away on last Sunday at the Presbyterian Hospital. Funeral was held at Allan's Chapel on the North Side, on Tuesday morning and the body taken to Graceland for burial. Mr. Wangeman leaves a widow and daughter Ella. Mr. and Mrs. Wangeman were former Englewood residents, having their home at 6435 Stewart Ave. for many years.

Victims of the Speculators

All that is necessary in these uncertain times to create a shortage in any product or even articles of merchandise, is to have the papers solemnly announce there is a shortage in that line, and forthwith every institution and individual will go crazy over laying in a supply of that one particular article. There is enough sugar now hoarded to relieve every need; warehouses are packed with hides and skins enough to shoe every being on earth; cotton and wool in a raw state is stored to the roofs, and the prices go on soaring at the behests of the speculators that hold the commodities, and the people fairly cry for them and proceed to do their bit of hoarding in turn and thus help out the speculators. If the storage warehouses of this bountiful country could be unloaded, or even invoiced publicly, it would break up every combine and every so-called shortage. A government that is strong enough to break a nation-wide strike, should be strong enough to break the ring of speculators and warehouse misers. Congress may talk, why not do something for the people by way of a change? We are all more interested in something to eat and wear at reasonable prices than we are in the "fifteen articles of the League of Nations." Come gentlemen, get busy.

The Emerald Ave. Presbyterian Church will hold their annual bazaar at Carpenter Hall, 6414 Halsted St. December 8th.

Rupture cured. Send postal for booklet. Mulholland, 340 63rd St.—

There will be a Thanksgiving Concert at the Engelwood Baptist church on Thursday evening, November 27th. The Baptist band assisted by the Imperial Quartet, are the attractions.

Mrs. Homer C. Easterly died at her home, 6647 Wentworth Ave., Saturday and the remains were taken to Marshall, Mich., for burial. Services were held by Normal Park Chapter, O. E. S., of which deceased was an honored member.

Your friends can buy anything you give them except your photograph. For pictures of style and quality, T. E. Wood Studio, 6250 Wentworth Ave. Avoid the Xmas rush. Set. now. Telephone Normal 502. (Adv. tf.)

A pound social will be held at the Protestant Association Home for Children, 6323 Yale Ave., from 2 to 5 P. M., Tuesday, November 25th. A reception will be held in the evening for the Daughters of the P. W. N. A. Miss Mary Bartelme will address them.

N. Dan Webster, the tailor, has moved his shop from 6305 Normal Blvd. to 6505 Normal Blvd. and hopes to meet his old friends. He does cleaning, pressing, remodeling and calls for and delivers orders. Tel. Normal 3815.

Don't wear the yoke of ill-fitting glasses another day. You can't afford to dilly dally with your sight. Better let me examine and restore your lost power of vision. Dr. J. B. Pattillo, Eye Sight Specialist, 456 W. 63rd, corner Normal Blvd., Tel. Englewood 8300. (adv)

The Junior Glee Club of the Teachers' College, 68th St. and Stewart Ave., presented a cantata and several part songs in the college assembly hall on Monday afternoon, under the leadership of Prof. W. H. Fairbank. It was very successful.

Do your Christmas shopping early and do it at Kellner's, 443 W. 63rd St. They carry appropriate gifts for every member of the family from toys for the kiddies to desk sets for "dad" and "grandad," dolls in endless variety, unusual leather goods, diaries, calenders, cards and pamphlets and many pretty and reasonable priced articles. (Adv. tf.)

The Myrtle Beauty Shop has opened at 6241 Normal Blvd. in the Cunningham Bldg. and are prepared to do all kinds of facials, scalp work, hair dyeing and waving, shampooing and manicuring and carry a full line of preparations for ladies' toilet, etc.

On Friday evening, November 21st, the Loretta Club of St. Bernard's Parish will give a dancing party in the school hall, 66th and Stewart Ave. Miss May Steele is acting as chairman of the committee; assisting her are Margaret Hanna, Nellie Erickson, Rose Costello, Katherine Leo, Catherine White, Margaret Tinlan, Mary Flynn and Regina Regan.

INVEST YOUR MONEY WISELY

6% The safest forms of investments have always been real estate mortgages secured by farm land. This is proved by the fact that the life insurance companies—the largest investors in the world—prefer farm loans over any other form of security. Producing farm land is better security than city realty. The principal value of city property rests in improvements which sooner or later become antiquated or unsuited to the needs of a changing neighborhood. The unforseen influx of undesirable neighbors adversely affects the value of city real estate. Farm land is free from both of these menaces, for every year shows a steady advance in the average value of farm property. It is this constantly increasing security, which makes farm mortgages so desirable. For years we have been making farm mortgages and selling them to conservative investors in Chicago. We collect interest and principal without charge. That we have succeeded in building up a reputation for care and conservatism is apparent from the fact that we now have several hundred customers in Chicago and others in over 30 states.

Send for our Illustrated Booklet describing these safe investments.

Auburn Park, Gresham Brainerd and the South

St. Killian's bazaar Dec. 6th.

Irwin Durbon, 8521 Green St., is seriously ill with pneumonia.

Thanksgiving Day will be celebrated with many family reunions.

Mrs. K. Foley, formerly of 461 Winneconna Ave., has moved to 9022 Loomis St.

Margaret Murray, 8849 Morgan St., was adjudged insane and taken to the detention hospital.

Vernon Wickstrom, 8351 Green St., celebrated his ninth birthday on Nov. 14th.

Richard Piper, 9057 Bishop St., was bitten on the hip by a dog at 89th and Loomis Sts.

Good time to begin picking out an alderman for the new ward—eh?

St. Killian's church will give a bazaar on December 6th.

Have you ever tried the pure candies sold by Kellners in bulk and bags? It is pure unadulterated and very reasonable in price. Special sale every Saturday. 443 W. 63rd St.

Mrs. C. H. Wilcox of 517 78th St. has had as a welcome guest this week Miss Ruth Aver of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Well, the fifty ward scheme failed to pass after all, and we still remain in the big 32nd Ward with two aldermen.

Misses Violet and Amy Frederickson of Englewood were week-end guests of Mrs. Wickstrom, 8351 Green St.

A street car ran into a wagon at 74th and Parnell Ave. on Monday afternoon and several people were injured.

Michael Doughe.., of 8047 Throop St. is confined to St. Bernard's hospital with severe wounds he received, by being struck by a street car at 81st St. and Racine Ave.

Lawrence Colinsky, 2432 W. 64th St., was killed by being caught in the machinery at Rosenbaum Bros.' grain elevator, 87th St. and Stewart Ave. on Nov. 12th.

Joseph Gaertig, 84th and Halsted Sts., and Nick Welder, who has just returned from Siberia, Russia, have gone to Genoa to hunt turkeys.

August Lorenz, 7619 Marshfield Ave., fell asleep on Nov. 16th. Funeral was held on Wednesday and the body laid to rest in Mt. Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. Wallace B. Coombes, the newly elected president of the Gresham Woman's club, will preside at the meeting to be held in the Gresham school today.

Officer John J. Downes, 8104 Elizabeth St., was laid to rest in Mt. Olivet cemetery on Thursday morning. Requiem Mass was sung at St. Sabina's church.

"Smoky" Nash, formerly of 7522 Union Ave., now living in South Bend, Ind., came to Chicago last week to celebrate the arrival of William, Jr., but, alas, old "Chi" was still dry and "Smoky" patronized the milk dairy.

The little ones of Mr. and Mrs. L. Straub, 88th and Morgan Sts., are ill.

$1 photos, exceptional value. DuLany Studio, 6457 Halsted St. Tel. Eng. 7992.—Advertisement. tf

Thieves with a keen eye to fine woolens, burglarized Tim Weldon's store Thursday night of last week and got away with several thousand dollars worth of the finest patterns. Luckily Tim had duplicated orders and has renewed his stock, but the loss, being uninsured, falls heavily on the doughty little Auburn Park champion.

Ladies are invited to visit the Englewood Thor Shop, 6007 Halsted St., and see the demonstrations of their washers, ironers and vacuum cleaners. Jos. A. Huguelet and John P. Sink, two of our gallant soldier boys are in charge.

Although the plan to boulevard Loomis St. through from 67th (Marquette Rd.) to 99th St. has been temporarily turned down, our people should keep up the agitation and probably they will secure it in another year or two. Keeping ever lastingly at it is what will count.

The body of Private Leo R. Ellis 7804 Green St., who was killed while fighting in Russia, arrived in Chicago Nov. 15th. Funeral service was held at St. Leo's church on Tuesday morning, where a requiem Mass was sung. A military escort took charge of the body, which was laid to rest in Calvary cemetery.

Auburn Park B. M. A. Election

At the annual election held last week, the following officers were elected by the Auburn Park Businessmen's Association: F. H. Korthauer, president; T. J. Weldon, vice-president; George W. Laing, treasurer; Cline C. Brosius, secretary. Directors for two-year term are: Tim Weldon, H. F. Schuberth, P. D. Callahan, Charles H. Reese, and for one-year term, C. C. Brosius, G. M. Laing, Otto Miller, Max Vogel, Harry Inglestine. A big monthly meeting was held Wednesday, Nov. 19th, at Cosmopolitan hall.

Married Armistice Day

A very simple and quiet wedding took place Tuesday evening, Nov. 11th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy P. Roberts, 7844 Morgan St. The bride was Miss Vora Ogden, who for the past two years has been employed at the Halsted St. State Bank and the groom was Mr. Julian L. Douglas, a manager of the United States Rubber Co. Mr. Douglas has recently returned from France, where he was known as Lieut. Douglas having distinguished himself in several battles. He was wounded and taken prisoner just as armistice was declared. His being married on Armistice Day was another peace making day for him. They will make their home for the present at 7754 Sangamon St.

Every householder's expenses are divided into a number of items; food, rent, clothing, fuel and light, house-furnishings, insurance, education and amusements, sickness—and the telephone.

Of all these items of expense, the telephone bill is one of the least, being a very small percent of the total cost.

For a trifling sum at most you have constantly at your command millions of dollars' worth of property and the service of skilled workers.

In business the cost of the telephone is frequently an even smaller proportion of the overhead expense than in the household.

It only needs an emergency to bring it home to any subscriber that the telephone is worth many times its cost.

In the face of today's high costs the telephone is a bargain; and a daily economy for every subscriber.

Fashion - - - Full Value Real Satisfaction

Fashion—in the trim lines of new lasts.
Value—in the service-giving qualities.
Satisfaction—in the precision of fit.
A Combination of Three Essential Elements In Our New Fall Favorites and Friend Winners

IN STYLE—the very mode of the moment; distinctive and individual; happily cast between the ultra-extreme and the cloddish ordinary. "Correct" is the style descriptive word.

IN LEATHERS—recommended for beauty, flexibility and good wearing qualities. Because reputation is valued above all else, "wear" is tanned into our leathers.

WORMANSHIP—unsurpassed; ideally blending best materials to shape-retaining shoes that carpet life's walks with comfort.

AT RIGHT PRICES—consistent with super-superiority. Prices that bring no regrets for having paid too little, nor prices beyond the point of judicious economy.

Our Shoes for Boys and Girls

They wear well because they're built well. "Proper fitting" is our specialty—all styles, prices reasonable.

Betty A. Bennett of Pasadena, Cal., the owner of the property in which the Ogden Park postal station is located, has leased the place, 1614-16 63rd St., to the Government for another ten years at a rental of $500 per month, or $6,000 a year.

Do your Christmas shopping early and do it at Kellner's, 443 W. 63rd St., just east of postoffice. Large line of toys of all kinds, leather goods, desk sets, metal and bronze, stationery, Christmas cards and a thousand novelties. (Adv. tf.)

A reception and dance will be given by the Ogden Park Camp 7923, M. W. of A., Thanksgiving eve, Nov. 26th. A good time can be had by attending.

The Neighborhood House Woman's club will have a "Daughter's Night" Thursday, Nov. 20th, at 8 p. m. A motion picture play will be given, "The End of the Road," by Dr. Rachelle S. Yarros. Mothers and daughters invited.

Water meters are quietly being installed in many public buildings in this section that formerly paid the reduced rates of frontage. The rate will be tripled at least and protests appear to be of no advantage. A political pull is about the only means to avert the injustice.

A Thanksgiving union service will be held at Marquette Rd. Baptist church, 67th and Laflin Sts., Thanksgiving day at 10:30. Rev. Ruddy of the Christian church will preach the sermon. The Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist and Christian churches are all in the service and desire their members to attend.

A Pontifical Memorial Mass will be celebrated Thanksgiving morning at ten o'clock in Holy Angels church, Oakwood boulevard and Vincennes avenue, for the deceased members of the Holy Name society of this Archdiocese. The celebrant will be Rt. Rev. A. J. McGavick, D. D., Spiritual Director of the Archdiocesan Union. There will be a sermon by Right Rev. Monsignor D. J. Riordan of St. Elizabeth's church.

This part of the town is interested in the boulevarding of Loomis Blvd. through to the south city limits as well as the southern part of the town, and our different organizations should give it a boost.

Emil Johnson of the Johnson Co. returned this week from New York, where he spent a week chasing up the shipment of his earlier orders for clothing. He succeeded in getting several large shipments in time for his early winter trade, that had been delayed in the manufacturing point.

Sunday last a number of friends assisted Miss Violet Johnson celebrate her natal anniversary at her home, 6039 Peoria St. Violet is in the mid-year graduating class of Englewood High this year.

NATIONAL THEATRE

"The Un-Kissed Bride" is an adventurous story in which love figures in a furious fashion. It comes to the National Theatre for one week commencing Sunday Matinee, Nov. 23. Little Kitty Blake comes into the story of the "Un-Kissed Bride" early and stays through it to the end. It is a good thing for Kitty that she has a delicious sense of humor, if she hadn't she would never keep the audience in laughter most of the time, for they would want to sympathize with her for being in an almost tragic situation.

When Kitty Blake has been unwittingly landed into the position of a bride under the eyes of the members of her supposed husband's family, the audience is at once happy for it knows that no matter what happens nor what complications may arise for the time being, the ending shall be one of the "happy ever after" type.

The "Un-Kissed Bride" tells a crisp, entertaining story. It relies on the naive character of its performers, on the bright lines the author has put into their mouths, on the conflicting episodes which follow each other with startling suddenness, and the final clearing up of a tangle which holds the audience enthralled from the first curtain to the last.

HALSTED THEATRE

The Halsted Theatre with Mr. L. H. Frank as manager, are offering their fast growing and well pleased patrons programs that are well worth going miles to see. If you are not a regular one visit will make you one. Try it out for once.

Today, Friday, November 21st—The sensation of the season, "The Fighter and the Girl," the most realistic photo play ever produced, a true story of love and fight, featuring Willie Ritchie, ex-champion light weight of the world and Betty Marshall, the queen of the screen. Extra special attraction, the Dempsey famous athletic girls, appearing in person at each performance.

Saturday, November 22nd—Matinee and night, J. Warren Kerrigan and Lillian Walker in "The Joyous Liar," Mae Tinee in the "Tribune says: 'This is a good picture and J. Warren Kerrigan up and shows that he can act on occasion. He adds to his undeniable good looks sincerity and likeableness. Lillian Walker, so long a stranger to the screen, "comes back" big in this production, furnishing able and artistic support. The picture is a comedy-drama—quite plausible as to plot and cleverly directed. It has lots of action, some well aimed "punch," much quiet fun and co-operation on the part of everybody concerned.

In "The Fireman," Thanksgiving Day

Monday and Tuesday, November 24th and 25th—Matinee and night—"The Price of Innocence." The story of the dramatic events that turn the peace and happiness of Goose Island into a seething maelstrom of hateful lust and blinding passions when beautiful Mary Aldron, to save her squatter kin from privation and homelessness, gives herself body and soul to the man who controls their destiny.

Wednesday, November 26th—Taylor Holmes in "Three Black Eyes." You must see this one. Its unusual.

Thursday, November 27th, Thanksgiving Day—Big double feature program. Put the "Halsted" on your list of events of the day. Anita Stewart in "The Combat." Miss Stewart's reputation needs no introduction. Also the king of funny men, Charles Chaplin in one of his best and funniest comedies. Be sure and come.

In "The Combat," Thanksgiving Day

Friday, November 28th, matinee and night—Anita King in "Mistaken Identity." If you miss it you miss it.

Saturday, November 29th, matinee and night—Billie Rhodes in her latest and best, "Blue Bonnett."

TULANE THEATRE

The Tulane Theatre at 6108 Halsted St. is exceeding the speed limits when it comes to putting on a fast array of filmdom's best productions. Manager Lewis is some artist when securing his bookings and his crowded house night after night proves his patrons like his selections.

Friday, November 21st, 6:15 to 11 p. m., today, big triple feature. Joe Martin, the only monkey comedian in the world, starring in the Universal-Jewel 2-act animal comedy in "Monkey Stuff," assisted by all kinds of animals. Also Neal Hart, "The Miracle Man of the Movies" in "The Element of Might." Also Harry Myers in "Evidence and the Law."

Saturday, Nov. 22, 2 to 11 p. m.—Mabel Normand in "Sis Hopkins," from the world-famous stage success by Rose Melville. She's funnier than Rose Melville, "she grew up like a weed and blossomed like a flower." Also a 2-act Gail Henry Comedy.

Sunday, Nov. 23—1 to 11 p. m.—"Love, honor and —?" An unusual drama of a rebellious wife, Ellen Cassidy and a determined husband, Stuart Holmes. Every woman who has taken or who contemplates taking the marriage vow should see it. First neighborhood showing, also Fox 2-act Sunshine comedy "The Lady Bell Hop's Secret." Added attraction Sunday matinee only, another Monkey Comedy, Napoleon and Sally, the educated apes in "As Others See It."

Monday, Nov. 24th—6:15 to 11 p. m.—Mae Marsh in "The Bondage of Barbara." A girl becomes a boy to save the family honor. Also Ford Weekly and Harold Lloyd Comedy.

Tuesday, November 25th—6:15 to 11 p. m.—The greatest of all emotional stars, Pauline Frederick in "The Woman on the Index." From the great New York stage success. Who is she? What did she do? Why was she trailed. Also Strand Comedy and Screen Magazine.

At the Tulane, Saturday, November 22nd

Wednesday, Nov. 26th—6:15 to 11 p. m.—America's most famous artist, Geraldine Farrar in "Shadows," a drama of Eastern days and Alaskan nights. First you see opera star as a dancing girl, queen of the tenderloin, next as a gorgeous gowned woman of the elite of New York. Milton Sills and Tom Santchi in the supporting cast. Also Lyons and Moran Comedy.

Thursday, Nov. 27—Special Thanksgiving matinee, 2 to 11 p. m.—Evelyn Greely in the "Oakdale Affair." Suspense, thrills, comedy, also "the great Radium Mystery," with Cleo Madison, Bob Reeves and Eileen Sedgwick, also Hearst News.

Coming—the "Miracle Man" and Elaine Hammerstein in "The Country Cousin."

Oyster Mystery Explained.

We are told that oysters are sensitive to extremes of heat. Which explains why you run across so few of the little darlings in a bowl of soup.—Knoxville Journal.

LYNN THEATRE

This is to introduce the Lynn Theatre to our many readers who come to these pages each week to learn what is doing and "who is who" in the great diversified movie world. The Lynn is an advanced up to the minute show house. All the big attractions are booked here and no film is too good for their patrons as night after night their crowded auditorium witnesses the production of the best features of filmdom. Always remember the Lynn is abreast of the times and the very best pictures of the world will be seen here at as early a date as they are released. Just give the coming week's program the once over:

Mary Pickford in "The Hoodlum"

At the Lynn Theatre, 1042 W. 63rd St., Saturday, November 22nd

Today, Friday, November 21st, double feature program—Michael Lewis in "Jacques of the Silver North." Also Helen Holmes in "Fatal Fortune."

Saturday, November 22nd — Mary Pickford in "Hoodlum." From the intoxicating strains of high-priced violinists to the razz of the Hurdy-Gurdy is the switch in life's position by Mary Pickford as Amy Burke in "The Hoodlum." Also James J. Corbett in "The Midnight Man."

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 23, 24, 25 and 26, 4 days—matinees every day—D. W. Griffith's masterpiece, "Broken Blossoms." Don't fail to see this wonderful picture. Miss Lillian Gish has again proved her remarkable talent as a screen actress in her performance of Lucy, the child in "Broken Blossoms," D. W. Griffith's art sensation. In Thomas Burke's story, "The Chink and the Child," taken from "Limehouse Nights," Lucy, the daughter of "Battling Burrows," is supposed to be 12 years old, but with the license of the artistic producer, Mr. Griffith took the liberty of adding three years to her age. Few who see her performances as Lucy will forget that tragic moment when at her bullying father's command she tries to push her wan lips into the semblance of a smile. Mr. Griffith declares that this was a purely involuntary piece of acting; for when, during the photography of the first scene of cruelty between her father and herself and she was all in very real tears, he suggested as director, that she smile through her tears. She was so wrought up over the scene that she tried to smile, but could not, and then quite naturally and without thought of artifice, she, with trembling fingers tried to push up the corners of her lips. It was so pathetic and human a gesture that Mr. Griffith at once realized its value and it remains one of the striking notes of the performance of this moving tale of loves and lovers."

Thursday, Nov. 27th, Thanksgiving Day, matinee and night—Mrs. Charlie Chaplin (Mildred Harris) in "Forbidden." Fred Worthington was rich, and tired to death of money and society and everything that money could buy. "Maddie" Irwin was poor and had lived in the country all her life, and was just as sick of her life as Fred was of his. So when these two of opposite natures met they loved, or thought they did, and married. And then "Maddie" began to be unhappy, because her husband wouldn't live in the city, and tried to cure Maddie of her city madness. But Maddie wouldn't be taught, until, with one wild shriek, all her desire for forbidden pleasures left her. Was she too late with her repentance? Come and see Mildred Harris Chaplin and find out what happened.

Always The Best ... Better Than The Rest
LINDEN THEATRE
63rd Street at Halsted

The Linden Photoplay House at 63rd and Halsted Streets with Mr. Thomas Johnson at the helm is surely billing some par excellent programs. The best is none too good for the Linden patrons and you want "Always the best—better than the rest." Go to the Linden. Here is only a brief outline of the coming week's offerings. "read and heed":

Today, Friday, November 21st, big double feature program—Dorothy Gish in "Turning the Tables." A story of crooks, spooks, lovers and lunatics. In which the screen's greatest comedienne takes the sigh from asylum and puts the toot in institution. A nasty aunt—a fiery squabble—a quack doctor, and blooie! a sanitarium for Dorothy. Also Pathe Review and good comedy. Also our old and favorite king of comedians, Charles Chaplin in his one best and most clever classic "The Fireman." It sure is a hot one. Don't miss it.

Saturday and Sunday, November 22 and 23—Dorothy Dalton in "L'Apache." Paris again is "gay Paree." And "gay Paree" is in "L'Apache." This picture has it all, and the inevitable clash when the two worlds meet. Also Saturday, Mutt and Jeff and an episode of "The Great Radium Mystery," serial extraordinary with new ideas and punches played by an all star cast including Cleo Madison and Eileen Sedgwick. Also Sunday, Burton Holmes Travelogue and another good comedy.

Thos. H. Ince presents
DOROTHY DALTON
In "L'Apache" Saturday and Sunday

Monday, November 24th—Mary MacLaren in "Bonnie, Bonnie Lassie." Suppose some fine old man took your breath away by offering you his heart and hand and $20,000,000 to boot and all the while you were only a sign painter? Can you imagine how you would feel—then, perhaps, you can imagine how Mary MacLaren felt in this great play, "Bonnie, Bonnie Lassie."

Tuesday and Wednesday, November 25th and 26th—Marguerite Clark in "Luck in Pawn." There is some justice and balance in the old world after all. On the one hand we have the H. C. of L., strikes and other afflictions to worry us, and on the other we are given joy-bringing folks like Marguerite Clark to make us forget our troubles. Miss Clark has been displaying her charming talents on the screen for several years now in a wide variety of roles. Lately she has been confining her efforts to light romantic comedy. If "Luck in Pawn," her latest offering, is any criterion, our personal vote is that Miss Clark continue to appear in this type of drama the rest of her movie life.

Thursday, November 27th, Thanksgiving Day—Jack Pickford in "In Wrong." Johnny Spivens had one friend. When his girl called him a "boob;" when the village bank president said he ought to be driven out of town; when his mother licked him; when his boss bawled him out; the only friend that stuck to him was his dog.

Friday and Saturday, November 28th and 29th—Everyone's star, Charles Ray in "Crooked Straight." Charles Ray is cast as a crook in his latest Paramount-Ince picture, "Crooked Straight," in which he will be seen at the Linden two days. It is not the usual story of a man sunk in the depths who turns straight after spending most of his life behind prison bars, but of a man who gets just one taste of crime. He then decides to be good thereafter, for he has learned his lesson. Of course, there is a girl and her influence is a large factor in the young man's permanent reformation. Julian Josephson, who is responsible for so many of Mr. Ray's successes, is the author of "Crooked Straight," while Jerome Storm directed the production, which was personally supervised by Thomas H. Ince. Margery Wilson is Mr. Ray's leading woman, and the other members of the cast are Otto Hoffman, Wade Butler and Gordon Mullen.

Englewood Woman's Club

The regular monthly business meeting of the E. W. C. was held in the Temple, Monday, November 17th, with Miss Hesse presiding. A Parliamentary Drill was conducted by Mrs. Axtell, and reports were given by the following: Mesdames Cross, Abbott, Allen, Louderback Wilson, Brittain and others. Miss Madge Headley then addressed the club, her subject being "Housing Problems."

The morning program was in charge of the Education Dept. of which Mrs. Hazey is chairman.

Mrs. Robert Watt gave an instructive and interesting talk on the Hyde Park Community Kitchen and Mrs. Ruggles told of the same work as carried on in Evanston.

On November 24th, the Art Dept. will meet at 10:45 a. m. and the second paper on Japanese Art will be given by Mrs. F. T. Avery.

At the afternoon session the Dept. of Literature will be in charge and the lecture, "Spiritual Elements of Shakespeare's Tragedies" will be given by S. H. Clark. This is the first of the Shakespeare programs arranged by Mrs. Hunt, chairman of the department, and as Mr. Clark is a general favorite, a large audience is expected. Members of the Drama League and Chicago Dramatic Society will be the guests of honor.

Fortnightly of Englewood

The Fortnightly of Englewood will meet November 25th at the home of Mrs. G. A. Ryther, 6828 Normal Blvd. Mr. Arthur P. Scott of the University of Chicago, will speak on "Current Problems."

Hamilton Park Woman's Club

Wednesday evening a community meeting was held in the Assembly Hall of the Field House under the auspices of the club. The speaker was J. Duncan Clark; subject, "Experiments in the World's Laboratory. Armour's orchestra furnished the music.

On next Tuesday the chorus will meet at ten o'clock. The morning session will be in charge of the Music Department; subject. "Musica Appreciation," by Mrs. Harold E Maryotte.

The class in public speaking, Mrs Lulu J. Sampson, Instructor, will meet at one o'clock.

The afternoon program will be under the direction of the Art and Literature Department, Mrs. A. O Jackson, chairman. Two plays "Manners and Modes," and "When Love Is Young," will be presented by the members of the Club under the direction of Mrs. Cornell.

Chicago Literary Score

The members and guests of the Chicago Literary Score entertained their husbands on gentleman's night Friday, November 14th. A very delightful program had been arranged opening with a heated debate between some of the gentlemen, the subject being, "Are Strikes Profitable" with Dr. Blake, Mr. Sweet and Mr. Beath on the affirmative and Dr W. H. Wilson, Prof. Witzeman and Mr. Hiney on the negative. Several delightful musical numbers were given by Miss Bacon, Miss Faulkner, Miss Wilson and Miss Plunkett. A little Belgian girl, who has been in America for only two years sang several songs very prettily in French, among them the Marsailles.

Mrs. C. Houghton White, director of the Dramatics for the Literary Score, produced a screaming farce entitled, "What Became of the False Teeth." Mrs. Helen Hayden as the man who had swallowed his false teeth was a "howling success," with Mrs. Laughlin as the much concerned and distressed wife; Mrs. Megelin as the family physician was very professional in her stiff hat and frock coat and Mrs. Dr. Wilson as "Mandy" the cook" was a scream. Miss Mildred Tillmore next appeared in a gruesome mystery entitled "Winnie Winkle." The program ended with a one-act musical comedy between Mrs. C. H. White and Mrs Albert Beath with Mrs. Laughlin at the piano, Mrs. White as the husband who always comes home late was debonair and gay and played her part with her usual talent and skill, while Mrs. Beath as the stormy and tempestuous wife who will not be pacified was true to nature. Delightful refreshments were then served and after a few remarks from Mrs. Slick, the president, all went home pronouncing the evening a great success.

Music for Thanksgiving

Your observance of Thanksgiving day will be greatly enhanced if you provide the means of ending "the perfect day" with delightful music. Not the rattle pan of an amateur or the bang whang of an out of tune instrument, but an exact reproduction of the master work of the master musicians of the world, of all ages. This privilege is at your door by calling at the Schmidt Manufacturing Co.'s display room, 404 W 63rd St., Reo Hotel Bldg., and having them send one of their high grade phonographs. You have no profits of middlemen to pay, as you receive your instrument direct from the factory to your home. No better, and few phonographs can equal the splendid phonograph they make and it is a home production. Help home trade and benefit yourself both in price and quality by buying now of the Schmidt Manufacturing Co adv

Englewood High School

The Parent-Teacher Association

The Parent-Teacher's Association of the Englewood High School met in Junior Hall, Thursday, November 13th. After a brief business meeting a program illustrating student activities of the school was given under the direction of Miss Taylor. The musical numbers consisted of selections by the orchestra, led by Mr. Hill and of songs by Mr. Beardsley of the faculty and Elizabeth Brown of the Junior Class. One of the most attractive numbers was that illustrating the work of the Senior Sponsors. The twelve Freshmen trained by Miss Kiely displayed unusual dramatic feeling.

In the tableau illustrating the school song, "Our Englewood," Zoe Brady represented Englewood. Ralph Wadsworth took the part of the Senior; Stella Johnson, of the Junior; and Ruth Freeman of the Sophomore. Donald Tobin, who symbolized the Freshman, was most winning in his singing and posing.

The activities of the Englebooster were portrayed by Miss Frances Jacob and Miss Pauline Ballanger at the Book Exchange; Howard Wilbur as the Lost and Found Department; Alice Anderson as the Athletic Girl, and Jo Nystrom as the Athletic Boy. The Englebooster Pin and Bulletin were represented very effectively by Paul Montague and Charles Schwarz.

Miss Juliette Armstrong made a most effective speech in the meeting explaining the "E," our school paper, and advertising the next number.

Ralph Helperin, as the Spirit of the Swimming Pool, had the honor of thanking the parents present for their efforts in securing the new buildings.

Foot Ball Game

On Saturday, November 15, Englewood added the seventh victory to her splendid record when she defeated Harrison 25 to 0. We are very proud of our football team and our coach.

Personal News

All friends and classmates of Mary Beard of the Junior Class are happy on account of the good news that reached her concerning her brother, Ira B. Lentz, of the U. S. Navy. A year ago in September, she was notified that he had been drowned in the Mediterranean Sea. Monday night she received word that he had been found on a lonely island in the Aegean Sea, weak and confused from starvation and exposure. He is to be sent to London for two months to receive medical treatment before he is discharged.

Normal and Auburn Park Community Thanksgiving Service

The Annual Community Thanksgiving Service of the Normal and Auburn Park neighborhoods will be held this year with the Normal Park Baptist Church, corner of 70th St. and Stewart Ave., Wednesday evening, November 26th, at 8 o'clock. Among the co-operating churches are Auburn Park Union Congregational, Auburn Park Methodist Episcopal, Calvary Methodist Episcopal, Evangelical Lutheran Church, 73rd St. and Wabash Ave., Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church, Emerald Avenue Presbyterian Church, Normal Park Methodist Episcopal Church, Normal Park Presbyterian Church and Trinity Reformed Episcopal Church, beside the entertaining church. There will be three ten minute addresses by Revs. Robert O. Thomas, C. D. Wilson and Frank D. Sheets on the topic, "Thanksgiving a Moral Responsibility." Also the Revs. L. H. Sandhusen, Austin L. Young, G. E. Sheffer, C. E. Hoffsten, Richard D. Hughes and Charles T. Holman, will have parts in the service. Miss Charlotte Allen will be at the organ and the excellent Chorus Choir of Normal Park Baptist Church under the direction of William Griswold Smith will sing two anthems, Dudley Buck's beautiful "Te Deum in B Minor," and the fine Thanksgiving anthem "While the Earth Remaineth," by John A. West. The entire collection will go to the Englewood District of the United Charities. Rev. Edward S. Sonne, pastor of Trinity Reformed Episcopal Church will preside.

The Civic Music Chorus

Is making a drive to increase its membership to 150 during its present season, which began Monday, with a spirited rehearsal, and will continue every Monday evening until June.

If you like to sing, join us and get the benefit of the excellent training offered by that authoritative musical director, John Norton, recently released from Uncle Sam's navy, in which he conducted an escort band.

Prior to his enlistment Mr. Norton directed the well known Bach Choral Society for nine years, also for many years he has been organist at St. James Episcopal Church and the Hamilton Park Chorus is very happy at his assignment to their club by the Civic Music Association of Chicago.

Want to join? Now is the time to start. Communicate with the president, Mrs. Albert J. Fisher, 7157 Yale Ave., phone Stewart 31; or inquire of the park director, Mr. Campbell.

Preparing Parcels for Mailing

Postmaster Carlile has issued a valuable circular on the proper preparation of parcels for mailing that should be in the hands of every one. Over a million parcels a day are mailed in Chicago and many of them are badly packed, wrapped or misdirected and consequently go astray or are ruined. Ask for this little folder at the postoffice and keep it handy in the house.

Forgot It—That's All, But—

You just forgot it, didn't you? of course that's all right, but when we try to forget our pay day the "staff" seriously objects and we have to dig deep down into our jeans to get the money to pay them, and where in the world will we get it if all of our kind patrons "forget" to pay us. The "forgetting" faculties of people generally is why we cannot afford to run classified ads without advance payment. Should you be one of the "forgetters" kindly brush up and remit that little amount as we need it in paying our income tax and things.

Harvard

Speaking of music, have you heard the new orchestra at the Harvard? All the world loves music and good music is a rare quantity, but at the Harvard one needs only to hear their orchestra once to convince them that they have the genuine. "Music hath charms," so if you have a longing for something soothing it will pay you in big dividends to visit the Harvard some evening or matinee. A word to the wise, etc.

Friday and Saturday, Nov. 21-22. Matinee and Night—The screen's most clever comedienne, Dorothy Gish, in her bright, snappy comedy, "Turning the Tables." A splendid new Paramount play. A story of crooks, lovers and lunatics, in which Miss Gish takes the sigh from asylum and puts the toot in institution. A nasty aunt, a fiery squabble, a quack doctor, and blooie! a sanitarium for Dorothy. But when the story ends, who's keeping the keepers busy then? Also the screan Mack Sennett Comedy "Up in Alf's Place." Mutt and Jeff Cartoon and latest news.

Sunday, November 22nd—Continuous 2 to 11 p. m.—Thos. H. Ince presents the popular star Dorothy Dalton in an unusual story "L'Apache." An amazingly vivid picture of the night life of Paris—of the "spenders" in garish cafes of the strange "half-world" of the fierce Apaches. Paris again is "gay Paree." And "gay Paree" is in "L'Apache." The Paris of the dance, the revel, the wine and the laughter. The Paris of the Apache, with his fierce love, his fierce hate, his quick dagger in the dark. This picture has it all, and the inevitable clash when the two worlds meet. Also Fox News, a good 2-part comedy and matinee only the last episode of "Elmo the Mighty." Also starting today, Sunday, November 22nd and every Sunday hereafter, "The Great Radium Mystery." Eileen Sedgwick, who played the heroine in the popular Eddie Polo serial, "The Lure of the Circus," is one of the leading players in "The Great Radium Mystery," the newest and most spectacular of Universal serials. She plays the daughter of a patriotic scientist who risks her life in order to protect for his country the large supply of radium which he and his partner have obtained in their secret laboratory, deep in the mountain.

UNIVERSAL'S SERIAL EXTRAORDINARY
STARRING
CLEO MADISON
It's the most mystifying serial you've ever seen and will keep you in suspense all the way thru. Just see the first episode and you'll want to see all the others.
At the Harvard, starting Sunday

Monday, November 26th, matinee and night—Tom Moore in "The Gay Lord Quex." What would you do if you were to be discovered in a woman's apartments at a week-end party at midnight? Tom Moore find himself in this predicament in his latest Goldwyn picture, "The Gay Lord Quex," and for a moment is entirely at sea as to what to do, but only for a moment. He conceives a brilliant plan by which he draws the discoverer into the embarrassment of the situation and thus saves the woman in the case from the tongues of scandal. His self-sacrifice in the matter meets with instant appreciation from his late enemy and results in paving the way to his happiness.

Special for Thanksgiving Day, November 27th—Dainty Marguerite Clark in "Luck in Pawn." "Say uncle," that's what Louis Armberg, pawn-broker, said to beautiful Annabelle Lee. And beautiful Annabelle Lee, having nothing but an artistic temperament and a lot of pawn tickets, called him uncle and had the time of her life. Mercy no! nothing wrong at all. Just a little friendly partnership that landed Louis where he wanted to go socially and netted Annabelle big dividends in love from one Dicky Norton. But the troubles they had! And the troubles they made! Wow! You'll gasp and laugh till your sides ache. Also the screen's cleverest comedian Harold Lloyd in his greatest two-part special comedy, "Bumping Into Broadway." A clever comedy, meaty with laughs, peppy with pretty girls, zippy with action. A continuous laugh from start to finish. An ideal Thanksgiving day show. Don't miss it.

Coming—One day only, Saturday, November 29th—by special request—the screen's biggest hit, "The Miracle Man." It's worth seeing it again.

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

The Marlowe Hippodrome at 63rd and Stewart is the real home of vaudeville in this part of the city, and always has in addition a fine run of the latest and best pictures, including all of the top liner stuff that people pay high prices to see in the loop. No matter what day you visit the Marlowe you are sure to meet with a good several hours entertainment, as they have the best bookings on many circuits of the best acts, the latest acts, and the most talked of acts on the stage. The comfortable big house is always in the lead and allows no house in the city to exceed them in the quality and quantity of their offerings. On Monday evenings they have their great hat gift show and many an Englewood lady is wearing a pretty "lid" voted to her by an appreciative audience. Their professional revue of vaudeville stars is the best attraction ever offered and includes at least eight fine acts. Then they have the song revue in which all of the latest and best vocal efforts are introduced and professional artists present them. You may be sure of a good show every time at the Marlowe, and their ladies' and children's matinees Saturday afternoon are the talk of the town. Give the Marlowe a try-out and you will become a regular.

EMPRESS THEATRE

Many in fact most people like a diversity in their amusements and right here is where the Empress theatre caters to your taste. In addition to showing a good run of feature pictures, they put on a vaudeville program unequalled by any house outside of the loop. They have a special arrangement in their bookings which includes many of the best on all the circuits and the stars of all kinds are glad to be considered good enough for the discriminating audiences of the Empress. They make a point of getting all attractions of diverse character, musical entertainers that are operatic stars favor the audiences here, the many stunts new, novel and entertaining, that go to only the best houses are all booked at the Empress, and it makes no difference what day or night you visit the Empress you are sure to be entertained and amused. Get the habit, come once and we know you will be regular.

E. A. R. THEATRE

Your pretty little neighborhood photo playhouse, the E. A. R. has been making big and history making strides in the giving their patrons the best photoplays that money can purchase. To prove this statement read the following program:

Two days, Friday and Saturday, November 21st and 22nd—Marguerite Courtot, Myrtle Stedman and Paramount all-star cast in "The Teeth of the Tiger" an Arsene Lupin story. "You murderer?" Who? The dead man's wife? Her lover? The doctor? The pretty niece. Or were those strange teeth marks the clue to another crime by Arsene Lupin? And who of these five was crouching there in the "house of mystery" in frantic fear of that steady automatic? A picture that is all thrill! Not an animal picture, but a story of Paris. Also Latest Mack Sennett Comedy.

Sunday, November 23rd—"The Thunderbolt" with beautiful Katherine MacDonald; cast also includes Thomas Meighan, Forest Stanley, Spottiswoode Aitken. By Mae Tinee in the Tribune: "Some splendid acting and photography make this picture one well worth seeing. A Kentucky feud which results in a strange marriage between the only two surviving members of the belligerent families furnishes the subject matter. To tell more of the plot would be to rob you of your interest, and I'm not going to do it. The surprise does not come until rather late in the picture, and I want you to be surprised when it does come."

Monday, November 24th—The most popular lover of the screen, Eugene O'Brien, in Eugene Walter and Edmund Golding's play "Sealed Hearts." A drama of the triumph of youth. "Backward turn backward, O time in your flight" was the old man's song, as he watched his young wife drifting away from him. But the wife and his son grew daily more attached to each other and "Love's Old Sweet Song" was the song they sang. When the old man saw what was taking place his soul broke forth into a hymn of hate. If motion pictures were set to music what a wonderful opera this one would make.

Tuesday and Wednesday, November 25th and 26th—William Fox presents "Should a Husband Forgive?" This splendid picture, a William Fox special, has scored its hit as much by virtue of its keen human interest as by its quality of mammoth production. The racing scenes are given an uncommonly fine presentation. The boxing match, staged at the Broadway Athletic Club in Brooklyn, New York, is one of the most convincing things of the kind ever attempted on the screen.

Thursday, November 27th, Thanksgiving Day, big double feature program, Paramount pictures presents the delightful little star Vivian Martin in a new amusing play "His Official Fiancee," a picture that is different. They certainly were a queer pair of "lovers." Engaged to wed, and about as enthusiastic over each other as they were over uncle's jokes (?). But uncle and the rest didn't know that the "engagement" was only a business proposition which netted the man an alibi and the girl some much needed cash.

Mercenary? Not at all! Wait till you see the reason—and what happened afterwards. A delightful entertainment, with Vivian Martin in one of her very best roles. Also the star of stars in comedy, our and your smile producer, Charles Chaplin in one of his best "The Fireman." If you don't see this one—you are the looser.

D. W. GRIFFITH'S "BROKEN BLOSSOMS"

Taken from a story of Thomas Burke, is at once the most painful, most tragic and withal, the most sublime love story ever told. And in the telling, the master Griffith has wrought such new and undreamed-of beauties that a new art, full, rich, boundless, is revealed.

EMPRESS THEATRE

The Empress Theatre and "good show" are synonymous terms in the south part of this big city, as everyone who goes to the Empress at any time knows that they will enjoy a good show. The winter season is on with all the big extra attractions and Manager Mitchell is after them so keenly that nothing can escape, and the result is the best line of vaudeville acts that are put over any board. The chestnut may not grow on this active stage; they must be good acts, new acts and clean acts to catch the eye of the wise old Harry who presides over this splendid house. As special attractions for ladies and children the daily matinee is boomed as the big day show of the town and the large and constantly increasing attendance shows that the real people appreciate it. There is not a lonely minute at the Empress, and not an hour but you feel you have spent well if you spend it at the Empress. If you want to keep abreast of the times at all times you will become an Empress patron and see their show often, as none of the headliners from any circuit escapes booking at this big, roomy, comfortable house. In addition to the vaudeville they show a line of very good pictures in features and travel, instructive, amusing and exciting, all of which are carefully selected for their fitness for this high class house. Go to the Empress and you will find your time as well as your money well spent.

Some People Never Get Tired.

Marjorie has been asking me daily how much longer she would have to wait before she could go to school. When asking her why she was so anxious, she said, "I'se so tired mother, of being ignorant."—Chicago Tribune.

ENGLEWOOD THEATRE

Edmond Hayes and his original Bozo with Edmond Hayes "Own Company" spoken of as one of the best shows in the American burlesque field, will be the attraction at the Englewood, Thanksgiving Week. The supporting cast this year includes several new stars and from a theatrical viewpoint it is considered one of the best vehicles of the season.

The "union piano moving act" is called the funniest act in burlesque.

Edmond Hayes with his own show, "His Original Bozo" Next Week

But it is not like some burlesque attractions that have a good comedian and that's all. The Hayes show has Bozo, Spike Hennessey's silent partner, one of the cleverest pantomine actors on the stage today, Miss Ruth Denice, the liveliest soubrette in the field, and called a "second Eva Tanguay." Ida Emerson, one of the best known principals in burlesque and a beauty chorus unsurpassed.

"There are two scenes in which Edmond Hayes has had the audiences in every city he has played in this season in hysterics. The piano moving act where he gets all tired out telling Bozo how to move the piano while he sits back in a rocker, and a dinner table scene in a hotel where he poses as a millionaire.

Uncle Eben.

"Popularity," said Uncle Eben, "kin be misleadin'. Foh instance, de man dat kin worry a tune out of a ukelele is allus mo' popular dan one dat keeps his mind on regular work."

MARLOWE HIPPODROME

Another headline week at the Marlowe is the offering of the Marlowe Theatre. "Doc" White seems to have struck his gait and the programs are drawing capacity houses every night and they deserve them. On Saturday and Sunday he has booked direct from McVicker's theatre Anderson's Big Girl Revue of ten people, the greatest musical comedy hit of the season, as well as other attractions. The regular program weekly continuing for the remainder of the week, with all the attractions of the Song Regue, the professional "try out" night, the "all star" vaudeville revue and the splendid pictures will continue in succession as usual so that every night is a good night at the Marlowe. Jim Corbett will hold one with the hairbreadth escapes and the wonderful strong arm work of the "Midnight Man," in all of which Gentleman Jim, the pompadour champion introduces some of his old scientific boxing methods, particularly his short arm jabs that put many a former champion to sleep. The travelogues and the "Mutt and Jeff" stuff are most interesting and amusing and the diversified programs are such as will interest everyone. A good show at every performance is the policy of the Marlowe and they sure do live up to it. When in doubt, go to the Marlowe.

A Drama of the Triumph of Youth

An old man married a young wife. She was beautiful and he loved her dearly, and he wanted, with all his heart, to make her love him. So he tried to live barkward, to become young again, to drop the years that divided her from him. He might have succeeded had it not been for a son he had—a young son of vigor and grace. It was only natural that the young wife should gradually lose sight of the husband in the society of the son; just nature's way of working out the problem.

SULLIVAN'S SENSE AND NONSENSE

Ain't It Splendid?

Ain't it splendid to be livin' long about this time o' year
Just around before Thanksgivin'
With the mornin's crisp and clear
With the children's cheeks a' glow in', with the future lookin' bright
And the shops and mills a'goin' like red blazes day and night?

Ain't it fine to wake from dreamin,
of the home your boyhood knew
And to find the glad sun beamin'
just the way it used to do,
Long ago about Thanksgivin' when you'd energy to spare,
When your pa and ma were livin'
and the days were always fair?

Poor old Turkey is in for an other basting next week.

If you have no cause to be thankful this year, whose fault is it?

I do feel kind'a sorry for poor old Turk next Thursday, but then we gotta be thankful for something

"It's the little things that tell," said one girl to another, and the comeback was "Yes, I have a little brother, too."

One way to get a set of furs is to just buy them, another one that seems approved in certain society, is to smash in a window and run with what you can grab up.

One of the causes of a strike by high school pupils in another part of the city, is that they want younger and prettier teachers. I have looked them over at Englewood High, and rule that our boys have no just cause of complaint.

It would be a hardship on the saloons if the prohibitory law was declared unconstitutional, as at present they pay no license and keep open Sundays and sell the poorest grade of booze at fifty cents a throw without let or hindrance.

I once worked for an old editor down in Missouri who refused to publish the death notice of a man who had not subscribed for his paper. He said "People who don't take the home paper never were alive, and their passing away has no news value.

I heard this week of a fellow who made a bet with his wife that he could thread a needle before she could sharpen a pencil. He says "I won in just thirteen minutes, but believe I would have lost if she hadn't run out of pencils at the end of five minutes."

Please do not wake Billy "Mac" up, he has a new scheme to have his hens lay two eggs a day by leaving the headlights burning on his car and having the nests in the full glare of the light. The government should have "Billy" solve the great problem of the high cost of liver.

One of the most unpleasant insects created by present conditions is the man that crowds his knees forward in his seat at the theatre so that one can scarcely pass him in the row. He specially delights in embarrassing ladies and should be abolished with other nuisances.

A wise young fellow in conversation with a well-known Englewood Club woman, remarked, "You meet so many women who are cats" at which she sharply rejoined, "Yes and occasionally you meet with men who are curs." Now he wonders if she was personal.

The following was heard on a street car one very cold day in winter in a Canadian city. At a corner the car was boarded by a husky soldier in the picturesque Highland uniform—the kilts of which leave the knees bare. On the car was a young dude still in mufti, seated with his best girl. The girl cast admiring glances at the attractively uniformed "kiltie," much to the displeasure of her slacker escort. So he endeavored to make fun of the uniform by remarking, "I think that outfit is most ridiculous. That fellow's knees look as if they were frozen." The kiltie, overhearing the comment, glanced contemptuously at the dude's civilian clothes, then scornfully replied: "Well, young fellow, it is a sure thing my knees aren't as cold as your feet." The slacker got off at the next stop.

"Rights and Responsibility" Dr. White's Subject Sunday Morning

At the People's Liberal Church, Sunday morning, Dr. R. A. White will speak on "Rights and Responsibility" and there will be special reference to the present reign of strikes and disorder. Both sides of the question will be discussed with Dr. White's experience and intelligence and the hearers may be sure of a rational treatment of an important subject. In the evening Pattison Pline, formerly of Columbia University and now a noted Chautauqua lecturer will speak on "The Soul of America." Prof. Pline is one of the really big men of the day, an American and a patriot who is in the foremost rank of speakers and it will be a treat for the audience to hear him. The usual organ recital will precede the lecture. Everyone cordially invited.

Simply Told a Lie

A very short time ago a party came to our office with an announcement of an organization asking us to publish it, and as the paper was then on the press, we told them it could not be run that week, but would the week following at the same time, explaining the circumstances. Notwithstanding this a report was made to the organization "Sullivan refused to print our announcement," without any explanation and as a result a friend in the organization came to us with the report and we take this means of explaining. We are always glad to publish local news coming from any respectable source, but must receive them by Wednesday afternoon.

Boy Scouts of America

The scouts of Chicago are called upon to locate a lost boy, Robert West, 14 years old, of Coffeyville Kan. He is large for his age, light complexioned, gray eyes, round full face slightly freckled, medium height, hair natural pompador. weight, 120 pounds, five to five and one-half feet tall, wearing long pants or overalls. He has been missing since June. There is a reward for his return. Notify Scout Headquarters, 206 W. 63rd St.

Next Saturday morning, 100 scouts will make a tour through Marshall Field's retail store. November 28th those attending the Patrol Leaders' Class will have a hike to the Sand Dunes of Indiana.

Mr. Stuart P. Walsh, Field Executive of Hyde Park Woodlawn District, will speak to the scoutmasters on Tuesday night, November 18th. Mr. D. M. Ramsay, Field Executive of North West District, will speak to the scoutmasters on "Teaching the Scout tests through games," on Tuesday, November 25th.

The new troop at Bethany Union Church, 103rd and Wood Streets registered last week. Their number will be 652.

Englewood Sunday Evening Club

An unusually fine program awaits the audience of the Englewood Sunday Evening Club at the meeting next Sunday. The program committee have secured as the lecturer, Victor Yarros who will lecture on "The Social Revolution We Are In the Midst of." Dr. Yarros is particularly well qualified to speak on this all absorbing subject as he has been a life-long student, is a resident of Hull House and is the book editor of the Daily News as well as a leader in the Chicago School of Civics and Philanthropy. The social unrest of today has set our wisest heads to thinking, and the world is now groping for a solution. Theories and ideas have been advanced only to be overthrown by practical and hard faced facts, and it is only such men as Dr. Yarros, whose study and life's work in this cause that may offer a plausible and reasonable surmise of where we are drifting. It will be worth while hearing him The soloist of the evening will be George B. Lane, the Basso, whose talent is well proven, and whose voice will be welcome. Mr. Lane by the way was on the Lusitania when it was sunk by the submarine, and was one of the last rescued.

Gaelic Language Class

In connection with the new Irish movement, the Friends of Irish Freedom will meet on the first and third Fridays of each month at the K. of C. Clubhouse, 6323 Harvard Ave. from 8 to 9 p. m. Under the tutelage of Mr. Michael O'Gallagher the Gaelic language will be taught by the direct method. A large class is now forming and all those who are interested in the new movement are invited to be present. Date of first meeting is Nov. 21st

Baptist Band Concert

The Englewood Baptist Band, one of the best amateur musical organizations in the city, will give their fifteenth annual Thanksgiving concert at the Englewood Baptist Church, Thursday (Thanksgiving) evening, Nov. 27th at 8:15. A splendid program has been arranged and they will be assisted by the Oxford male quartette, Class 47 Ukelele Club. Ruth Russell Rice reader, and there will be community singing. Everyone and their family and friends are invited.

Too Late for Publication

There is no use sending us "copy" later than Wednesday afternoon, as we cannot possibly publish it. Every week we are compelled to make this announcement, but some people seem to think we can accept "copy" up to Thursday and send it to us, and if not available for the next issue we must consign it to the waste paper basket.
